Forman Named President of Harmon Associates LLC

JERICHO, NY – Marc Forman has been named president of Harmon Associates LLC. He takes on the role of president in addition to his current duties as chief operations officer, effective immediately.

A 17-year veteran of the company, Forman will have responsibility for all of Harmon's activities globally, including recycle fiber sourcing for the Georgia-Pacific's European and U.S. mills, and third party trading. He replaces Simon Davies, who has left the company after 22 years of distinguished service.

Already one of the world's largest pure traders of recycled fiber, moving in excess of 120 thousand tons per week, Harmon is focused on growing its business by building and improving on its network of trading partners, suppliers and customers around the world.
